IV. Public Comment

Linda Douglas-Williams explained to the Board her concerns about the Eisenhower pool and that it needs many repairs that need to be addressed. Stated the scoreboard has been broken for a long time. The water aerobics boards keep breaking and they keep gluing them back together, but they should have new ones. She doesn’t want the Eisenhower pool to be forgotten in regard to updating and improving areas in the park district as she is vested and a long-time patron of the Eisenhower Pool.

Adam Cook addressed the Board regarding his concerns as well as understanding regarding the possible raise in fees within the District.
